Committed To Sustainability

We are not only committed to providing a fish oil supplement that is of the highest quality, but we are also dedicated to ensuring that it is sustainably sourced. We only use fish oil that is sourced from Friend of the Sea® certified fishing companies. This certification requires sustainable and ethical fishing practices, including:

- Not overexploiting the target stock
- Discarding no more than 8% of fish that are caught
- No impact to endangered fish species
- No impact to the seabed
- Compliance with all governing regulations
- Social accountability
- Gradual reduction of carbon footprint
