Hello, [name]!

[Insert your own personal opening that references past conversations.]

I know we haven't talked in a while, but I wanted to reach out to see how things are going. I was looking at some business reports and noticed your Isagenix membership has lapsed. You were so [insert adjective] when you got started and had such great results [if they did not, use your discretion here]. I wanted to let you know Isagenix is offering a special promotion for past Members like you who re-enroll under this promotion that includes free membership renewal for one year (a US$29 value), 10 percent off your first order back, and a $10 product coupon on your second order.

If that wasn't exciting enough, we recently released our Healthy Living Guide, which is packed with special seasonal offerings!

Isagenix has found that many former Customers stop using their products due to a few common reasons like:

- Affordability.
- Their personalized system needed tweaking to help them reach a new goal.
- Frozen Autoship and forgetting to reorder.
- Life events.

If you can relate to one of these reasons, or had some other reason for canceling or allowing your membership to expire, let me know! I'm sure I can help find a solution.

Or maybe you're not ready to commit to a full system, but there are a few Isagenix products you want to get back in the habit of using. If so, you can order by logging in to your Isagenix account. If you forgot your password, that's OK! The system will prompt you to update it. Here is your Member ID: [Insert Member ID]. You can get your Autoship membership renewed for one year for free (a US$29 value), which unlocks the lowest pricing plus your first order back will be receive a 10 percent discount!

Isagenix has done so much for me and those I care about, and I want it to do the same for you. Also, since you've been away, we've added great new flavors, products, and solutions that can benefit your evolving needs and lifestyle! I would love to tell you more about them.

I look forward to hearing from you!
