

This Earnings Disclosure Statement (the “EDS”) reflects statistics based on all Customers and Associates globally in 2015 and therefore is not representative of any potential earnings in the UK as Isagenix UK is a startup and therefore local statistics are not available at this time. At such time as 2016 statistics are available, Isagenix will update this EDS accordingly. Furthermore, in the future when UK statistics are available and reflective of the market in the UK, Isagenix will provide an applicable EDS. The purpose of this EDS is to provide all potential Customers, or Associates with information that identifies how our members are segmented between the categories of Customers and Associates, the benefits of each category, and provide indicative levels of earnings of Associates in all Isagenix markets combined.

Isagenix provides solutions to transform lives. People choose to join Isagenix for a variety of reasons, but most are simply consumers who wish to enjoy Isagenix products at reduced prices. Many refer other Customers every now and then and may receive some commissions that may help offset the cost of their products. Others join Isagenix to earn a little extra money to supplement their part-time or full-time incomes, and some join to build full-time businesses selling Isagenix products. Everyone who joins Isagenix enjoys low start-up costs and a money-back satisfaction guarantee.¹

Building an Isagenix business can be rewarding, but like any worthwhile business, results vary depending on many factors, including your skill, effort and time. Isagenix does not offer “get rich quick” and there are no guarantees of success. Building a long-term business is hard work and Isagenix is no different in that regard. Unlike most businesses, however, building an Isagenix business does not require a significant investment in inventory, sales tools, or other materials. Isagenix Independent Associates (“Associates”) are strongly discouraged from purchasing more than they can reasonably consume or sell in a given month, and they are protected by our satisfaction guarantee as well as a one-year buy back policy for those who choose to leave the business.

Those who decide to build an Isagenix business have the opportunity to earn money in various ways, including commissions and bonuses based on product purchases made by new and existing Customers, Product Introductory Bonuses, and retail sales, to name a few. Isagenix Associates also can be rewarded for helping other Associates achieve success. However, Associates are not paid for recruiting new Associates. They are paid primarily based on product sales to end consumers. For additional information, the Isagenix Compensation Plan is available to all Isagenix Associates at www.isagenix.com. The following chart is designed to help prospective Associates better understand the different ranges of average compensation that Isagenix pays to its Associates. It’s important to note that a large majority of those who join Isagenix don’t join to make money at all—they just want to enjoy the benefits of using our products. They are reflected in the chart as “product users”. The “product sharers” category represents those who earned compensation in 2015 for referring a few friends from time to time, but who have earned less than USD$500 with Isagenix during the previous year, which makes them more like loyal customers than active business builders. The “business builder” category represents those whom we believe have made a significant commitment to build a part-time or a full-time business selling Isagenix products and who have earned at least USD$500 in the previous year, either in commissions and bonuses or through retail sales. As of 31st December 2015, 165 Associates (0.3% of those who have become business builders) had achieved “Isagenix Millionaire” status, meaning they had earned more than USD$1,000,000 excluding costs and expenses on a cumulative basis since joining Isagenix. Those in this group averaged approximately 5.63 years as Isagenix Associates before becoming Isagenix Millionaires, with the longest being almost 12 years and the shortest being 1 year 2 months.

The figures below include retail profits for retail sales, but only to the extent those sales were made directly through Isagenix channels. The compensation received by the Associates depicted in this chart is not necessarily representative of the compensation that any particular Associate will receive, if any. The amounts presented should not be viewed as guarantees or projections of any individual results.
