

1. I hereby grant to Isagenix (EU) B.V. ("Isagenix"), and its respective affiliates, licensees, successors, and assigns (collectively referred to as the "Licensed Parties") the right and permission to use, publish, and display my image, picture, and likeness (collectively referred to as "Likeness"), or any material based upon or derived therefrom, for purposes of advertising, promoting and publicizing Isagenix, its products and services, and business opportunities, subject to the conditions below.
2. The scope of this consent and release will be limited to use of my Likeness by Isagenix and its Licensed Parties for promotional purposes, including but not limited to its website, marketing materials (in both print and digital forms), newsletters, and other promotional materials. Isagenix agrees not to modify or alter my Likeness except to resize and modify the background in images.
3. I warrant and represent that the Likeness I have provided to Isagenix is authentic and I have not altered it in any manner.
4. I agree that any Likeness of me, or anything derived therefrom created by Isagenix or the Licensed Parties is owned by them; I waive any editorial approval or right of inspection to such works.
5. I agree that if I believe that Isagenix or a Licensed Party is using my Likeness in an unauthorized manner, I will notify Isagenix and allow Isagenix thirty (30) days to address the issue before initiating any proceeding against Isagenix or that Licensed Party.
6. I agree to waive any claim I may have against Isagenix, including that of compensation, arising out of any use or intended use of my Likeness so long as that use or intended use remains in adherence to the provisions within this consent and release.
