

Getting to your “Why”

The 10 Steps to Success

Why are you doing this business? Why now? Who is depending on you to be successful? This simple exercise will help you expand your “Why.” Often, people focus more on what they do to build their business rather than why they’re building a business. The people who are most successful in network marketing have a rock solid “why.”

Stuck on your “why?”

If you need more time or further thought about your “why,” register for the Isagenix event Powerful Presentations and or purchase the 2 CD Set Discovering Your Why by David Wood on IsaSalesTools.com.

Example: “Why” Statement: “I believe all parents deserve to spend more time with their children. I show people a way to stay home and provide an income to facilitate this dream. I am a residual income specialist.”
